

Association of Chartered Physiotherapists in Sports and Exercise Medicine

Autumn Study Day Manchester
4th October 2014
All About the Knee

The ACPSEM Autumn Study Day in Manchester comprises of talks focusing on the knee as well as practical demonstrations. There will also be an opportunity to ask the panel questions.

Lee Herrington

Relationship of Running, Landing and Squatting Performance to Patellofemoral Pain and Potential Treatment by Modifying Movement with Verbal and Visual Feedback

Paul Comfort

Development of Force and Rate of Force Development: Implications for Prevention and Rehabilitation of ACL Injuries

Karen Hambly

Articular Cartilage - Implications for Rehabilitation

Duncan French

Low Load Blood-Flow Restricted Resistance Exercise (BFRRE) and its Application to Strength and Conditioning

James Moore

The High Hamstring Tendonopathy, Management Strategies

Early bird rates available until end July 2014

£110 Members | £135 Non Members | £80 Students

For information on venue and directions click here.

For information regarding the timetable click here.

For more information visit our website physiosinsport.org

